Dear Sir:

Thank you for selecting Grant Thornton LLP to perform certain procedures relating to the confirmation of a minimum of $40,000,000 available cash balances for the Triple Five Group of Companies (“the Group”, or “Companies”) and certain related entities as at March 9, 2018. The purpose of this letter is to confirm our mutual understanding of the terms of our engagement, and the nature and limitations of the services we will provide. Our engagement will be conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for reports on the results of applying specified auditing procedures to financial information other than financial statements which we will indicate in our report.

We have agreed to perform the following procedures specified by you and to report to you the findings resulting from our work:

	Procedure
1	Obtained a list of cash and investment accounts (the “listing”) from management of the Group that shows a minimum total fair value of cash and equity investments of $40,000,000 US. Footed the listing.
2	Recalculated any Canadian cash balances included in the listing to USD equivalent cash balances using an exchange rate of $1.2927 CAD to $1 USD.
3	Agreed the CAD or USD cash balances included in the listing to printouts of the related cash or investment statements as at March 9, 2018.
4	For one investment account included on the listing, recalculated the market value of available equity investments included in the listing by multiplying the stock price per Yahoo Finance as of March 9, 2018 obtained online by the number of shares per the online investment statement dated March 9, 2018.
5	For one investment account included in the listing, agreed the available USD equity balance to a printout of an investment statement noting total USD equity available in the account at March 9, 2018.
6	Obtained representations from management that accounts noted on the listing are held by the Group, or related individuals or entities to the Triple Five Group of Companies.

	Procedure
7	Obtained representations from management that the accounts noted on this listing have no restrictions on the use of cash including any pledges of the accounts.

In agreeing to perform the above procedures, we have made no attempt to assess their sufficiency and appropriateness for your purposes, as such an assessment is your responsibility.

Our report will:

- a specifically identify the financial information to which the procedures were applied;
- b specify the procedures performed;
- c state only the factual results of those procedures and not express any form of assurance;
- d state that an audit has not been performed on the financial information and disclaim an opinion thereon;
- e indicate restrictions, if any, on distribution of the report; and
- f disclose the name of the firm, date of the report, the place of issue

The procedures we will perform will not constitute an audit or review engagement and, accordingly, we will not express an opinion or provide assurance in our report. We look forward to full co-operation with your staff, and we trust that they will make available to us whatever records, documentation and other information we request in connection with our engagement.

Fees

Fees are based on the time required by the individuals assigned to perform the Services defined herein. Individual hourly rates vary according to the degree of responsibility involved and experience and skill required.

Any fee estimates by Grant Thornton take into account i) the agreed-upon level of preparation and assistance from your personnel; and ii) the hourly rates for our professionals that will be providing the Services. Grant Thornton undertakes to advise the Group's management on a timely basis should this preparation and assistance not be provided or should any other circumstances arise which cause actual time to exceed that estimate.

Other services

Any additional services that the Group may request and we agree to provide will be covered by a separate written engagement letter.

Group consent to production

The Group hereby acknowledges that we may from time to time receive requests or orders from professional (provincial institutes) or other regulatory or governmental authorities

(including the Canada Revenue Agency) to provide them with information and copies of documents in our files including working papers and other work-product relating to the Group's affairs. The Group consents to us providing or producing, as applicable, these documents and information without further reference to, or authority from, you.

When a regulatory authority requests access to our working papers and other work-product relating to the Group's affairs, we will, on a reasonable efforts basis, refuse access to any document over which the Group has expressly informed us at the time of delivery that the Group asserts privilege, except where disclosure of documents is required by law or requested by a provincial Institute/Order of Canadian Chartered Professional Accountants pursuant to its statutory authority. The Group must mark any document over which it asserts privilege as privileged and inform us of the grounds for the Group's assertion of privilege (such as whether it claims solicitor-client privilege or litigation privilege).

We may also be required to provide information relating to the fees that we collect from the Group for the provision of services, other accounting services and non-audit services, and the Group consents to the disclosure of that information as may be required by the regulatory authority.

The Group agrees to reimburse us, upon request, at our standard billing rates for our professional time and expenses, including reasonable legal fees, incurred in dealing with the matters described above.

Release and indemnification

You agree to release, indemnify and hold harmless Grant Thornton, its affiliates and their respective directors, officers, partners, principals, employees, consultants and contractors from any and all claims, liabilities, costs and expenses (including any and all legal expenses incurred by Grant Thornton) arising out of or based upon: (a) any misstatement or omission in any material, information or representation supplied or approved by you; or (b) any other matter related to or arising out of this Engagement, except to the extent finally determined to have resulted from the negligence, willful misconduct or fraudulent behaviour of Grant Thornton.

Limitation of liability

In any action, claim, loss or damage arising out of the Engagement, you agree that Grant Thornton's liability will be several, and not joint and several and you may only claim payment from Grant Thornton of its' proportionate share of the total liability based on degree of fault as finally determined. Any action against us must be commenced on or before the date which is the earlier of i) eighteen months from the completion of the Services; and ii) the date by which an action must be commenced under any applicable legislation other than limitation legislation.

The total liability assumed by Grant Thornton for any claim, loss or damage arising out of or in connection with the Engagement, regardless of the form of action, claim, loss or damage be it tort, contract or otherwise, shall in no event exceed the aggregate of the professional fees paid to Grant Thornton for that portion of the Services that has given rise to the claim. In addition,

Grant Thornton shall not under any circumstances be liable for any special, indirect or consequential damages, including without limitation, lost profit or revenue, or similar damages.

There is no common ownership, control, governance, or agency relationship between member firms.

Assisting firms – Unless otherwise stipulated within the Engagement, this Engagement is with Grant Thornton. In the course of providing the Services, we may at our sole discretion, draw upon the resources of or subcontract a portion of the Services to another entity (including a partnership) which may carry on business under the name which may include within its name "Grant Thornton" or be another member firm of the worldwide network of Grant Thornton International Ltd. member firms (hereinafter "GT Affiliates").

Electronic methods include, but are not limited to, telephones, cellular telephones, external hard drives, electronic mail and facsimiles. These technologies provide for a fast and convenient way to communicate. However, all forms of communications have inherent security weaknesses and the risks of compromised confidentiality cannot be eliminated. Notwithstanding the inherent risks, the Group agrees to the use of such electronic methods to transmit and receive information (including confidential information), between Grant Thornton and the Group and between Grant Thornton and outside specialists, contractors or other entities engaged by either Grant Thornton or the Group. The Group further agrees that Grant Thornton shall not be liable for any loss, damage, expense, inconvenience or harm resulting from the loss, delay, interception, corruption or alteration of any electronic communication due to any reason whatsoever.

Unless otherwise directed by Grant Thornton, all fees, expenses and other sums will be billed and payable in Canadian Dollars.

Termination – Either the Group or Grant Thornton may terminate the Engagement upon fourteen (14) days prior written notice to the other party. In addition to the foregoing, Grant Thornton may also terminate the Engagement in the event of a breach of any term of the Engagement by the Group which is not cured by the Group within ten (10) days of receipt of written notice as to the breach. Upon termination for any reason, the parties shall return each other's confidential information, except that Grant Thornton may retain one copy for its working papers and one copy of the Group Materials even if same may contain confidential information of the Group. In addition to its rights of termination provided herein and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Engagement, Grant Thornton shall also have the right upon five (5) days prior written notice to the Group to (i) suspend or terminate its Services in the event the Group fails to pay Grant Thornton any amount due to it under the terms of the Engagement; or (ii) terminate its Services in the event Grant Thornton discovers any information which Grant Thornton determines, in its sole discretion, may affect its reputation, integrity, or independence. In the event of termination, the Group agrees to compensate Grant Thornton for all time expended and costs incurred up to and including the date of termination.

In the event neither the Group or Grant Thornton exercise any of their respective rights regarding termination of the Engagement, the Engagement will continue in full force and effect for the year ending noted within the Engagement and until such time as the Engagement is superseded or replaced by another Engagement.

Severability – Each provision of this Engagement is severable and if any provision (in whole or in part) is or becomes invalid or unenforceable or contravenes any applicable regulations or laws, the remaining provisions and the remainder of the affected provision (if any) will not be affected.

Assignment – No assignment shall be made by either party of their respective obligations under this Engagement without the prior written consent of the other party.

Publication – Unless otherwise permitted by the engagement, under no circumstances without the express prior written consent of Grant Thornton, shall the Group disclose, release, use, make reference to, or quote Grant Thornton's name, logo or any Deliverable (whether written or verbal) within any press release, press conference, website update, media release or any other form of public disclosure ("Disclosure Document") other than for litigation purposes, but only to the extent and in the manner that such use is contemplated by the Engagement. In the event the Group wishes to seek Grant Thornton's consent as required by the Engagement, the Group shall provide to Grant Thornton a copy of such Disclosure Document for prior approval, which approval may be unreasonably withheld.

Group representations, warranties and covenants – The Group represents, warrants and covenants to Grant Thornton that:

- a. the execution, delivery and performance of the Engagement has been duly authorized and does not conflict with or violate any contractual, statutory, common law, legal, regulatory or other obligation by which the Group is bound; and
- b. the Engagement is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Group, enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Grant Thornton representations, warranties and covenants – Grant Thornton represents, warrant and covenants to the Group that Grant Thornton will provide the Services described within the Engagement in a professional and competent manner. Grant Thornton makes no other representation or warranties and explicitly disclaims all other warranties and representations whether expressed or implied by law, usage of trade, course of dealing or otherwise.

Surviving provisions – The Group's obligations in respect of confidentiality, payment of fees and expenses, limitation of liability and Release and Indemnification as outlined within the Engagement shall survive termination of the Engagement.

Governing law and forum – The Engagement, including these terms and conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province in which the Engagement was signed by Grant Thornton.

Other matters – The failure of either party to insist on strict performance of the Engagement, or to exercise any option herein, shall not act as a waiver of any right, promise or option, but the same shall be in full force and effect. No waiver of any term or provision or of any breach or default shall be valid unless in writing and signed by the party giving such waiver, and no such waiver shall be deemed a waiver of any other term or provision or any subsequent breach or default of the same or similar nature.

Complete agreement – This Engagement, including these terms and conditions and any schedules, sets forth the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes and cancels any prior communications, understandings, and agreements between the parties. This Engagement may not be amended or modified except in writing between the parties and shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties and their respective successors.
