Keri Lynn Stromski Memorial Playground Dedication Ceremony Thursday, May 19, 5pm Iron Pier Beach

A new playground at Iron Pier Beach will be named after the late Aquebogue Elementary School kindergarten teacher, Keri Lynn Stromski.

The new Keri Lynn Stromski Memorial Playground will be located at Iron Pier Beach and will include a new playground, a bench and a sign honoring Keri Lynn Stromski of Jamesport, who passed away on April 6, 2021 at the age of 48 after a four-and-a-half-year battle with breast cancer.

Ms. Stromski was diagnosed with the stage IV disease in November, 2016 and became a vocal advocate for research funding for treatment of metastatic breast cancer. She also published a blog and posted almost daily on social media to educate the public about treatments, clinical trials and shared how living with the disease affected not only the patient, but family, friends and the community as well. “The entire Stromski-Kubetz family has such a large presence here in our town and Keri’s recent passing has left a huge void in so many lives,” Supervisor Yvette Aguiar said during a recent work session.

The Town Board invites you to join them for the Keri Lynn Stromski Memorial Playground dedication ceremony on Thursday, May 19, 2022 at 5:00 p.m. at Iron Pier Beach located at the end of Pier Avenue in Jamesport. Please contact Ray Coyne at (631) 727-5744 ext. 730 for more information.

Sincerely,

Raymond Coyne
Superintendent of Parks and Recreation
Town of Riverhead Recreation Department.
