Invites You to Register for

IMPLICIT BIAS WORKSHOP

Mondays: 6/21 and 6/28 from 10am -12 pm
Or Tuesdays: 6/22 and 6/29 from 6:30- 8:30 pm

At Riverhead Town Hall Board Rm, 200 Howell Ave, Riverhead

The Riverhead ABTF, with the support of the Town Board, invites you to join us for this free, two-part interactive workshop that will explore, discover and work to unite us a communitycommunity.

The workshop will be led by James W. Banks, LCSWR, CCH-facilitator; coordinator of Multicultural Affairs & Consultant to the Center for Social Justice & Human Understanding at Suffolk County Community College, who describes the goal of this workshop; “We do a lot of segregating ourselves, only hanging out with and listening to people who think like us. This implicit bias seminar is a chance for people to peaceably listen to folks who think differently. And if we are not willing to listen to others who think differently, that in itself can be a bias. It’s ok to think differently if we operate with an open mind and willingness to remember that success is not being better than anyone else, it’s being better than we once were.”

We hope you’ll join us. To register now, email ABTF@TownOfRiverheadNY.gov with your name, phone number and preference of morning or evening sessions. As seating is limited, you will need to receive email confirmation to attend.
